CLUB NOTES

Unlucky at Ipswich, then a good win

One way and another, even though it was disappointing to lose by the only goal scored at Ipswich after winning there by 5-1 at the outset of last season, North End have made a reasonably satisfactory start, and one in accord with the form and prospects shown in the two friendly games with Blackpool.

The Ipswich setback, which was undeserved on the run of play, was quickly counterbalanced by yet another decisive victory against Portsmouth, whose 1-6 defeat at Deepdale in March was North End's biggest win last season. On Monday they were beaten 4-1, an exact reversal of their own winning score on Saturday.

On that occasion, against Plymouth, with whom we shall shortly be trying conclusions, Cliff Portwood scored the first two goals and he chipped in with their consolation goal at Deepdale. Last season he led the Portsmouth scoring list with 11 in his 36 League outings. We wish this ex-North Ender well.

North End were less defensive-minded than Ipswich in a dour opening match of moderate appeal, in that it produced more excitement than good football. The issue turned on two scoring attempts of striking similarity. Ipswich took the lead when Gerry Baker headed in following a free kick, with Johnny Barton adjudged just too late in his desperate effort to scoop it back.

Fifteen minutes later, with 15 minutes to go, Alex Dawson, who was most unlucky not to see one of several good efforts rewarded, was robbed of an equaliser by the crossbar and an adverse decision by the referee on appeal that the ball crossed the line when it bounced down. Goal or not, it was a near thing.

Ipswich, who became one of the most improved sides in Division II when Bill McGarry took over last season, concentrated on putting spanners into the works when North End were attacking. This tribute was paid Preston by Ipswich's manager: "They are a good side who are going to be pushing hard for promotion this season, and if you give them a chance to play a bit they can be a very good side. So we just didn't give them much opportunity."

He added, rightly, "This was perhaps a pity, for the game could have done with a bit of culture." "Pompey," two nights later, came with much the same ideas in mind, judging from their hard and very tight marking in the early stages of a game spoiled in the first half by excessive niggling and rough play.

There was no doubting North End's overall superiority, especially in attack, although Pompey might have done better if their forwards had kept going as promisingly as they started. But it was not until the second half, when the referee quietened tempers and eased the tension by adopting a firmer attitude, that the best was seen of North End.

A delightful first half goal scored by Wilson after neat inter-passing involving Dawson and Godfrey, was supplemented by two from Godfrey, who could well have had two or three more, and one—thoroughly deserved for his persistence and skill—by Alex Dawson.

A crowd verging on 18,000 enjoyed a highly entertaining contest, despite the numerous "incidents" which we would have been glad to have been spared, and if football of this standard can be maintained, as we confidently expect it to be, attendances will assuredly rise above that figure.

OUR VISITORS—Birmingham

Birmingham, our welcome visitors today, have not been to Deepdale since the 1960-61 season, when North End were last relegated. Like ourselves "Brum" have had a chequered career in the Football League, having been up and down six times, but, again like Preston, have spent many more seasons in the First Division (38) than in the Second (24).

Down last April with the Wolves and naturally determined to get back with the haste that befits a relegated club, their descent ended their second longest spell in the top flight—10 seasons. The best was a run of 18 seasons from 1921 to the last season before the second World War.

Birmingham's post-war record suggests that in the main they have not been quite good enough to be sure of holding First Division status, while rather above the general standard when in Division II. For example, in recent successive seasons Brum have occupied positions perilously near the bottom—20, 20, 17, 19 and 19.

Thus the writing was on the wall, in the traditional phrase, when the Blues were squeezed out last season, finishing in the 22nd position. In Division II, however, it was a different story. Their placings in their last five seasons were 1, 7, 6, 3, 4, and in the previous two 1 and 3.

Just as St. Andrew's has been anything but a happy hunting ground for North End for many years, only two Preston victories having been achieved there in eight

BIRMINGHAM PLAYERS

James Herriot (goal). A close season acquisition of considerable experience from Dunfermline. Succeeds big John Schofield, who made 36 League appearances for Birmingham last season. Born Chapelhall, Lanarkshire.

Ray Martin (right back). Hails from the Black Country, with Wolverhampton his birthplace. Came up from the juniors and earned recognition by his promise in most of his 20 League games last season.

Colin Green (left back). A Welshman (born Brynteg), who was recruited from Everton and put in 22 League appearances last term.

Ron Wylie (right half). A well-known League player of long standing, was signed in June from Aston Villa, and previously had given more than useful service to Notts County. Another Scot, born Glasgow.

Winston Foster (centre half). Plays football for the City of his birth, and was developed at St. Andrew's. Figured in all 42 League games last season. A highly capable pivot who is never easy to beat.

Terry Hennessey (left half). A six-footer who was born at Llay, near Wrexham. Developed in Birmingham junior circles and made the grade. Missed only seven League games in the past two seasons.

Alec Jackson (outside right). There's a name to conjure up memories with an older generation of fans, and in the same position, too, as Huddersfield's famous Scottish international winger of the late 1920's. There the comparison ends, for his namesake was born at Tipton and reared by West Bromwich Albion.

Malcolm Beard (inside right). A wing half or inside man who began life in Cannock Chase and found his football future with Brum. Made 39 League appearances in the last campaign, but was a scorer only six times.

Geoff Vowden (centre forward). Birmingham's joint leading scorer last season with 10 goals in his 28 League games. Signed from Nottingham Forest, born Barnsley.

Rob Thomson (inside left). Nine goals in 25 appearances last term. Had only to move from neighbouring Villa Park when signed on by Birmingham.

Denis Thwaites (outside left). A useful penetrative raider who totted up seven goals in his 26 League games last season. Hails from Stockton-on-Tees, but brought on in football by Birmingham.

visits during the post-war period, defeat ensuing on the other six occasions, so Birmingham have found Deepdale a somewhat barren spot.

Beaten there by 5-0 on their last pre-war visit, and subsequently relegated, Brum have scored only six goals in their nine most recent meetings with North End and Preston and three of these, when we went down in 1961, brought Birmingham's solitary victory—by 3-2. Of the rest North End won five and drew two.

The best remembered of these victories is, of course, the 8-0 thrashing administered by North End in 1957-58 when Tom Finney was leading the attack. He scored two wonder goals, Tommy Thompson supported him with three more and Sammy Taylor also notched a trio. It was our biggest win for 57 years.

If you ask "Who, in football, were known as the Heathens?" most people look puzzled and are unable to answer this teaser. It was Birmingham's original nickname when founded in 1875 as Small Heath Alliance. As Small Heath, Birmingham were one of the first members of League Division II in 1892.

They changed to Birmingham in 1905, when in the First Division for the third time, thereby acquiring readier recognition and greater substance and, by way of adding more dignity, changed again to Birmingham City in 1945. They were the first football club to become a Limited Company—from 1888.

The St. Andrew's ground is one of the best in the country for "packing 'em in," the attendance record being 67,144. Their average last season was just under 20,000. Birmingham have been served by a long list of internationals, among them such well remembered names as Harry Hibbs, Joe Bradford and Dan Tremelling.
